

Dangerous

Robin Thicke

I'm dangerous, so dangerous
I'm dangerous, you better stay away
Stay away from me
I'm dangerous
I'm dangerous, so dangerous
You're a lone hitchhiker and I'm a traveling truck
You better not get on this ride, you might lose your luck
I'm dangerous
You better heed the signs, the skull and cross bow nights
Stop lights and yields, I'm slippery when wild
Cautions and red flags, I'm gonna cross that line
I'm dangerous
So don't you, don't you say baby
Baby I'm crazy, crazy for wanting
Wanting you badly, madly i'm serious
And you're so curious but i'm too dangerous
You better not kiss me once, you better not fall in love
I'm a pterodactyl and you're a wandering dove

I don't mean to be greedy but it's never enough
I'm dangerous
I'll tell you I love you and I'll believe it's true
Then I'll do something so bad to you
And you'll say I hate you and you'll be screaming in a dream
Where no one can hear you
So don't you, don't you say baby
Baby I'm crazy, crazy for wanting
Wanting you badly, madly I'm serious
And you're so curious but I'm too dangerous
You're idealistic so filled with glee
You see me as you're shining prince
But I'm a treacherous king
You'll accept my olive branch but I'm poison ivy
I'm dangerous, so dangerous
I'm dangerous, so dangerous
You better stay away, stay away from me
I'm dangerous
