So Bad

Arum Rae

You made it so bad baby
That I canâ€™t go back
You made it so bad babe
That my love for you
Why, it donâ€™t mean a thing
No matter the darkest night
Or the long, long hours I cry
When the winds even howlin for you
And the stars wonâ€™t shine
Theyâ€™re too blue
No matter how bad I want you
You made it so bad baby that I canâ€™t go back
You made it so bad baby
That my love for you, it donâ€™t matter no how
You, I canâ€™t change
And I have only myself to blame
For drawing the worst out in you
And maybe the best things too
Oh I remember all the ways that you held me
So safe from everything
But you.
