

Fault

Subvision

Now I'm pouring out the worst of me
For everybody else to see
That it's your fault

How I fell into the seas of wonder
And crossed the oceans bearing load

A strung out fool for your heroine ways
Blew my cool for a fiction daze
A promise heard that said you'd be mine
And swore you'll be 'til the end of time

But I fell into the seas of wonder
And crossed the oceans bearing load

I just couldn't hesitate
Couldn't help but to seal my fate
Now I long for days that've come to pass
And it's your fault

So I sank into the seas of wonder
And drowned in oceans chained in load

I just couldn't hesitate
Couldn't help
I just couldn't wait
Now I long for days that've come to pass
And it's my fault
It's my fault
