Coming Alive

Phil Wickham

I see a battle of love
Lifted over our heads
Its waving in the sky and its stained in redFrom the far away hills
Come the voice in the night
Its ringing in our hearts like a battle cryNow were coming alive
Were coming alive
Open your hearts, take whats inside and let it goWere speaking out for a change
But words are never enough
We could be the hands and the feet of loveYou, me, loveNow were coming alive
Yeah were coming alive
Open your hearts, take whats inside and let it goWake up from your sleeping
Theres something to believe in
The only way to love is to give yourself
Oh-oh-oh give your selfNow were coming alive
Were coming alive
Open your hearts, take whats inside and let it goComing alive
Were coming alive
Open your hearts, take whats inside and let it goOpen your hearts, take whats inside, come on!
Open your hearts, take whats inside and let it go
