Slept So Long

Jay Gordon

Walking, waiting
Alone without a care
Hoping and hating
With things I can't bareDid you think it's cool
To walk right up to?
So save my life and fuck it up
Well, did you, well, did you?I see hell in your eyes
Taken in by surprise
Touching you makes me feel alive
Touching you makes me die insideWalking, waiting
Alone without a care
Hoping and hating
With things I can't bareDid you think it's cool
To walk right up to?
So save my life and fuck it up
Well, did you, well, did you?I see hell in your eyes
Taken in by surprise
Touching you makes me feel alive
Touching you makes me die insideI've slept so long without you
It's tearing me apart
Till how to get this far playing games
With fist held cardsI've killed a million pity souls
But I can kill you
I've slept so long without you
I see hell in your eyesTaken in by surprise
Touching you makes me feel alive
Touching you makes me die inside
I see hell in your eyesTaken in by surprise
Touching you makes me feel alive
Touching you makes me die inside
I see hell in your eyesTaken in by surprise
Touching you makes me feel alive
Touching you makes me die inside
