Jezabel

Jimmy Crawford

You walk into a room
You've got killer eyes that hypnotize
You're dangerous
Oh yeah, you're dangerous
You've got a snaky kinda strut
It's too hot to touch
Can't trust a thing you do or say
Gotta stay away
One by one
You've gone from man to man to man
Until your mission is done
Jezabel, kiss and tell
You use your body just to cast your spell
And sell your story
You're just a Jezabel, kiss and tell
You ride the headlines like a carousel
Of fame and glory
I'm goin' down your windin' road
Down those killer curves that work my nerves
You're dangerous
Slippery and dangerous
You've got a camera down your shirt
You've got a slit in your skirt
For your dirty work tonight

Now ain't that right
Here you come
You've gone from bed to bed to bed
And now the damage is done
Jezabel, kiss and tell
You use your body just to cast your spell
And sell your story
You're just a Jezabel, kiss and tell
You ride the headlines like a carousel
Of fame and glory
One by one
You've gone from man to man to man
And now your mission is done
Jezabel, kiss and tell

You use your body just to cast your spell
And sell your story
You're just a Jezabel, kiss and tell
You ride the headlines like a carousel
Of fame and glory
Jezabel, kiss and tell
You use your body just to cast your spell
And sell your story
Of fame and glory
