

Ghostown

Basecamp

Laid flat
The cards on the table
But we were not able
To fold or concede I fought back
And what did it get me
This is no victory
This is defeat Burned
I burned away
The only things I ever needed
To stay Stuck with the choice
The choices I've made I should be proud right now
But I'm left to bare the weight Alone All the lines we crossed
Had to be a better way
Maybe I missed it
I should've listened
To love Everything we lost
Laying in the bed we made
Wrapped in shame
I know I turned my heart to a ghost town Stood and watched as it burned down I turned my heart to a ghost town Not Much left to take
Its only now I realize it's too late
Cut a new path
And sharpen my blade
I should be home by now
But there's no longer such a place Wish that we could've been stronger Yeah I know it hurt
But we could've held for a little bit longer I know it's my fault
The flesh and the bone The blood on the ground The deafening sound That pushes me on Alone All the lines we crossed
Had to be a better way
Maybe I missed it
I should've listened
To love Everything we lost
Laying in the bed we made
Wrapped in shame
I know I turned my heart to a ghost town Stood and watched as it burned down I turned my heart to a ghost town
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnyrics.com/>