Play It Cool

Super Furry Animals

Dormant vices turned on their devices
Now, she's raising money for the sex appeal
And when she grazed her knees upon the Astro turf
All her blood turned green as the TV screamedWhatever you want to do, do it now an' pay later
Whatever you want to say, say it now an' pay later
Whatever you want to clean, wash it now an' go later
Whatever you want to do, do it now an' pay later'Cause it's no problem if you play it cool
Things are different if you act a foolThe electric mistress always sounds so bold
She says I'm free to do anything I'm told
I try the latest newsflash, it's sensational
I feel so seduced, tell me to reproduceWhatever you want to do, do it now an' pay later
Whatever you want to say, say it now an' pay later
Whatever you want to pray, pray it now an' pay later
Whatever you want to do, do it now an' pay later'Cause it's no problem if you play it cool
Things are different if you act a foolWhatever you want to do, do it now an' pay later
Whatever you want to say, say it now an' pay later
Whatever you want to clean, wash it now an' go later
Whatever you want to do, do it now an' pay later'Cause it's no problem if you play it cool
Things are different if you act a fool
