Behind the Scenes

Keeping Secrets

I lay this out on the table
Only you catch me
Call me out on this fable
Just to hear my story

I will look you in the eye
Say those words that make you melt inside
History repeats again just like me
This will never end I will never end
Iâ€™ll be as sketchy as this pen and paper
Sending you to war without a weapon
Using my ability to get your sympathy
The only thing this is, its apathy

Just one more
Youâ€™ve seen this so many times yet you canâ€™t walk away

Behind closed doors
Lights out you think you know me
So delicately I wanted more
So I lied and betrayed you
This must be love

How could you miss the doubtful look in my eyes?
When I told you that this felt right

I will kiss your lips again
With the passion that you only see in movies
Iâ€™ll set you up to take the fall
Make you think that I am perfect Iâ€™m so perfect
I own the blueprints to you hear
And just like on a battlefield
Iâ€™ll use these phone calls so strategically
Placing them perfectly
