Chase the Fire

The Fixx

You chase the fire
You paint the signs
I walk the wire
You shout the linesThere was a time when my mind
Was made up by you
Is this a deja vu
Or am I just missing you?I've been here before and lived
To the thrill of it all
And I might be in the dark
But I'm watching youYou chase the fire
But you can't take the heat
You slay the lion
But you won't taste the meatYour look was all it took
To get me hooked on you, oh yeah
My eyes were closed
But now I'm watching you [now I'm watching you]You chase the fire
But you can't take the heat
You slay the lion
But you won't taste the meat
You chase the fire, you chaseYou chase the fire [you chase the fire]
You paint the signs
I walk the wire
You shout the linesThere was a time when my lines
Were made up by you
Is this a web of lies
Or am I just seeing through?You chase the fire
But you can't take the heat
You slay the lion
But you won't taste the meatI've been here before
And lived to the thrill of it allAnd you, you chase the fire
You chase the fireYou chase the fire
You paint the signs
I walk the wireYou chase the fire
You paint the signs
I walk the wireYou chase the fire
But you can't take the heat
You slay the lion
But you won't taste the meatFade....
