

Run to Him

CeCe Winans

Just when the party is over
The thrill is gone
I hear a new voice saying He's only begun
He says that He walks through guide me
To brighter days
He says He would walk beside me
And open up a way So I will run to him
So I will run to him Lord I am running
For your living water
Ooo hallelujah I heard of His name in stories
And Sunday song
But my image of Him was distant
My image was wrong
Turns out he is so much closer
And oh so deep
My Faith in Him so much bolder
My direction is clear So I will run to him
So I will run to him Lord I am running
For you living water
Ooo hallelujah So I will run to him
So I will run to him Lord I am running
For your living water
Ooo hallelujah What are you waiting for
I hear He is still turning water into wine
What are you waiting for
Yes He's still giving sight to the blind
His pure perfection is no mystery
So I will testify. And when He crush the Sky
I'll take all that I can with me Why don't you run to him
Why don't you run to him Lord I am running
For you living water
Ooo hallelujah Why don't you run to him
Why don't you run to him Lord I am running
For you living water
Ooo hallelujah Lord I am running
For you living water
Ooo hallelujah Lord I am running
For you living water
Ooo hallelujah
