Wild Heart Gypsy

Corey Hunt Band

Well you were young
You were pretty
And dressed like a wild heart gypsy
On the night that you bumped into me my world shook

Like a car stuck in traffic
Everyone moved but I was distracted
With one look my heart reacted
Thatâ€™s all that it took

You had love as vast as the ocean
Yeah but once your heart was broken
Before a single word was spoken I already knew

If your heart was put into my hands
Well id protect it with everything that I am
As far as breaking well itâ€™d have no chance thatâ€™s the truth

So donâ€™t mistake us for a burning flame
We wont burn out we wonâ€™t bend or break
The winds gonna blow and the waters gonna try to run through
But nobodyâ€™s ever loved you like Iâ€™m about to

When the morning comes to take you away
Give me a smile and let me know youâ€™ll stay

So donâ€™t mistake us for a burning flame
We wont burn out we wonâ€™t bend or break
The winds gonna blow and the waters gonna try to run through
But nobodyâ€™s ever loved you like Iâ€™m about to

Now my sad well it ainâ€™t sad no more
Ever since you walked through the door
Wild heart gypsy and a long lost troubadour
Who woulda knew?

Lyrics Submitted by Mackenzie Emi

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/