

Limited By Time

A Telemetry

eyes dilated hit the wall force already felt as luck will have it today sympathetic and soothing such a gift to rely upon such a fit to be tied much to much to destroy a trust and wallow through an exit door

feel it cave from behind
life limited by time
take the distance afforded

over strung with ill will pasted to the bottom as hope will come up dry devastation the harvest such a truth is denied such a boot to the mouth little to late to employ a fix when all has gone through a crack in the floor

at all cost - nothing is lost put under a spell the opposite found in a replay just to realize - need only to see extinct we will be quickly decay
the long chain behind is much shorter in front feel it came from behind
