The Floor

Johnny Gill

(Gonna hit it)
Ski-doody-doom-da-nah
(Oh yeah)
Ski-doody-doom-da-nah
Ski-doody-doom-da-nah
(Oh yeah)
Ski-doom-dahBottoms up, it's too hot in here
Where's the fire truck when you need o-one
I want a firm foundation, a knockout derriere
I can't believe that my eyes are gaspin' for airUnlike before, so much to explore
All I need and more, I'm gonna hit the floor
No kids in the candy store, get a lollipop at the door
I won't be no more, I'm gonna hit the floorA bedrocker anytime, gotta keep, gotta keep it on the level
(A bedrocker)
Lay it low, with feet sky high
(Lay it low, feet sky high)
When you drive a wide load, you better go for what you knowUnlike before, so much to explore
All I need and more, I'm gonna hit the floor
So much to explore, I'm gonna hit the floor
I'm gonna hit the floor, I'm gonna hit the floorEarthquake shakes whenever you move
The word heart breaker describes you
Nice full back, there just waitin' to score
A stallion to break, so whatever it takesGot my boots, got my hat, got my ridin' pants
To enhance the romantic circumstance
With you, you, ah, it's all I wantHere we go, I'm gonna hit the floor, so much to explore
Here I go, I'm gonna hit the floor
Soon as I hit the door, I won't be no more
I won't get, you're sexy undies under the doorWhatever you want, whatever you need
(Yeah, yeah)
I'm gonna give it, just let me rule it
(Yeah)Gonna hit the, gonna hit the floor
Earthquake shakes whenever you move
The word heartbreaker describes you
Nice full back just waiting to score
I tell you what I'm gonna do [unverified]
