

The Great Divide (Crash Cove Remix)

Rebecca Black

[Verse 1]

You go where the wind blows
Destroying everyone in your path
I'm done feeding your ego
Forgetting everything that we had[Pre-Chorus]
Funny how history ends in an instant
How something so close can end up so distant[Chorus]
Dancing on the line of the great divide
Wash my hands, turn my back
I don't need the memories we had
I'm leaving you behind
Across the great divide

[Verse 2]

Good luck when you wake up
And realize all that you lost
Shiny lies are what you're made of
I hope it's worth the price that it cost[Pre-Chorus]
Funny how history ends in an instant
How something so close can end up so distant[Chorus]
Dancing on the line of the great divide
Wash my hands, turn my back
I don't need the memories we had
I'm leaving you behind
Across the great divide[Bridge]
I let you go, so let me go
Let us go
I let you, I let you, I let you go[Chorus]
Dancing on the line of the great divide
Wash my hands, turn my back
I don't need the memories we had
I'm leaving you behind
Across the great divide[Outro]
Mmm... the great divide
Hey, yeah
