Little One

Lucy Schwartz

Little one
Little love
Little hands
Look how they hold the world
Oh, stay a while
Little Smile
Little eyes
Soon they will know the worldBut there's no rush in getting older
No use in wishing to be young
Live every part of it
You're at the heart of it
Little one
Little one
Where'd you go?
Once so small
Look at the way you've grown
Oh, dress up dolls
Playing house
Those day have gone
Now you've got a house of your ownAnd there's no rush in getting older
No use in wishing to be young
Live every part of it
You're at the heart of it
Little oneOh...
And there's no rush in getting older
No use in wishing to be young
Live every part of it
You're at the heart of it
Little one, little oneOh...And there's no rush in getting older
No use in wishing to be young
Live every part of it
Little one. little one
