

Daisy (Adventure Club Dubstep Remix)

Brand New

And we sing this morning that wonderful and grand old message.

I don't know about you but I never get tired of it

Number 99, Just As I Am. I'm a mountain that has been moved

I'm a river that is all dried up

I'm an ocean nothing floats on

I'm a sky that nothing wants to fly in

I'm a sun that doesn't burn hot

I'm a moon that never shows its face

I'm a mouth that doesn't smile

I'm a word that no one ever wants to say I don't wanna be,

He wasn't finding anybody when he was on the shelf

I saw him in my dream I'm a mountain that has been moved

I'm a fugitive that has no legs to run

I'm a preacher with no pulpit

Spewing a sermon that goes on and on Well if we take all these things and we bury them fast

And we'll pray that they turn into seeds, to roots and then grass

It'd be all right, it's all right, it'd be easier that way

Or if the sky opened up and started pouring rain

Like he knew it was time to start things over again

It'd be all right, it's all right, it'd be easier that way Well if we take all these things and we bury them fast

And we'll pray that they turn into seeds, to roots and then grass

It'd be all right, it's all right, it'd be easier that way

Or if the sky opened up and started pouring rain

Like he knew it was time to start things over again

It'd be all right, it's all right, it'd be easier that way

Songwriters

JESSE LACEY, VINCENT ACCARDI Published by

Lyrics © BMG RIGHTS MANAGEMENT US, LLC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.

Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>