

Den of Thieves

Martini du Jazz

These living quarters are off limits to you

These guarded borders are all subject to choose

Passive, not my tone of voice, no way

Not my choice, here to make a pointInside, you will find all that you need

In the den of thieves

Inside, you'll always find ecstasy

In the den of thievesThis propaganda can be hell against you

This four leaf clover can be lucky for you

Freedom and fortune waits for all time to Climb the wall and watch the old ways fallInside, sleep always comes easilyRadical changes are there pushing you through

Severing ties, a big decision for you

What will you doPower by rank and file

You must learn to smile

Lonely in the windInside, things aren't always what they seem
