Mysteries

Janne Schra

God knows how I adore life
When the wind turns on the shore, lies another day
I cannot ask for moreWhen the time bell blows my heart
And I have scored a better day
Well nobody made this war of mineAnd the moments that I enjoy
A place of love and mystery
I'll be there anytimeOh, mysteries of love
Where war is no more
I'll be there anytimeWhen the time bell blows my heart
And I have scored a better day
Well nobody made this war of mineAnd the moments that I enjoy
A place of love and mystery
I'll be there anytimeMysteries of love
Where war is no more
I'll be there anytime
