

Woman

Sugarloaf

WOMAN Sugarloaf She is the person who waits in my dreams She is transparent and cannot be seen violently waiting till I go to bed deeper and deeper she enters my head Standing in front of the wonderful house covered with paper mache closing the cellophane door with this she runs awaaaayyyyyy I am the person who waits in her dreams She has discovered the love that you see She hasn't noticed the changes I see She never watches she never dreams Slowly I turn from the wonderful house running a prominent name watching the blue crystal veil taking a dream awayyyyyyyyyy Woman needed the blues on the corner woman never is there when you want her always got something to doooo never can be there with youuuu She is the person who waits in my dreams
She is transparent and cannot be seen
with this she runs awaaaay Woman needed the blues on the corner
never can be there with youuuu
