

Crawling Eye

Misfits

It's such a steep climb up the mountains south side
It has a cloud that acts in such peculiar ways
Accident count rising, a young girl prophesizing
To protect their race they'll seize her mind At this altitude it's freezing
Aliens control human beings
No one has lived to tell who's seen the crawling eye?
At this altitude it's freezing
Aliens control human beings
No one has lived to tell who's seen the crawling eye? These evil demon eyes, under cloud cover hide
They have great tentacles to tear apart their prey
All these men are dying, crawling eye decapitizing
Fiends without a face attack mankind At this altitude it's freezing
Aliens control human beings
No one has lived to tell who's seen the crawling eye?
At this altitude it's freezing
Aliens control human beings
No one has lived to tell who's seen the crawling eye?
