

My Time Alone

Home Grown

Time away, I've thought this through
A full ashtray, I'm outside of you
I've been thinking, "Will she leave me?" My time alone and you are here waiting
For me to break but I am not changing, I won't listen
My time alone and you are here waiting
For me to break but I am not changing, I won't listen Apart from me, torn from the floor
Honestly, I can't give you more
I've been breathing since you left me My time alone and you are here waiting
For me to break but I am not changing, I won't listen
My time alone and you are here waiting
For me to break but I am not changing, I won't listen
I won't listen to you, I'm not leaving with you, I won't listen Time away, you've lost all control
And I'm in need of this time alone
I've been breathing since you left me My time alone and you are here waiting
For me to break but I am not changing, I won't listen
My time alone and you are here waiting
For me to break, I am not changing, I won't listen
I'm not leaving, I won't listen to you
