

Impossible

1 Girl Nation

I guess I've always been a dreamer
But today nothing holds me down
My heart has never felt freer
Than now
Right nowAnytime I reach out for a star
You make me understand
You're holding every one of them
So I'm reaching for Your hand-I used to say that the sky was the limit
But You've opened my eyes to what's really true
My dreams can happen, as long as You're in it
Cause there is no, there is no impossible with-You-ou-ou
You-ou, no
Impossible with-You-ou-ou
You-ou, no
Impossible with-"Can't" is not a word that I'm saying
"Quit" is not a word that I use
Finally, I'm living like
I won't lose
I won't loseAnytime I reach out for a star
You make me understand
You're holding every one of them
So I'm reaching for Your hand-I used to say that the sky was the limit
But You've opened my eyes to what's really true
My dreams can happen, as long as You're in it
Cause there is no, there is no impossible with-You-ou-ou
You-ou, no
Impossible with-You-ou-ou
You-ou, no
Impossible with-Cause You're so invincible
Possible with YouYou're indestructible
Possible with YouYou're undeniable
Possible with YouBecause of You, my dreams are Possible with YouAnytime I reach out for a star
You make me understand
You're holding every one of them
So I'm reaching for Your hand-I used to say that the sky was the limit
But You've opened my eyes to what's really true
My dreams can happen, as long as You're in it
Cause there is no, there is no impossible with-You-ou-ou

You-ou, no
Impossible with-You-ou-ou
You-ou, no
Impossible with-You-ou-ou
You-ou, no
Impossible with-You-ou-ou
You-ou, no
Impossible with-You!
