

You'll Be Fine

Millie Hatfield & Tyler Henderson

One Time When I Was Eight Years Old, I Took My Bicycle Out Onto the road, I Was Crusin Around Till i got in a wreck , And I ended Up with A Bloody Leg. And my daddy said Let me care for you, heres six bandages and crutches too, daddy said better take ya to the doc he'll disinfect the section so the infection can be blocked. Daddy Said sweet babygirl can i get you anything in the whole wide world and my momma said, youll be fine. youll be fineee. One time when i was in grade 6 i had a teacher who was a totally not nice woman. she made fun of my hair, made me cry and she didnt care, and my daddy said oh me oh my, let me give that woman a piece of my mind, daddy said ima call the school, she aint got the right to be so cruel. Daddy said ima get her fired and we'll celebrate with a big bonfire and my momma said, it'll be finee, it'll be fineeee. One Time I Found A Boy I Liked, He Was Sweet And Thoughtful And very polite, He treated me like a queen and he was decent, on the strings. And Myyy Daddy said let me meet this boy, he better like jesus and be employed, daddy said yall dont be alone, better always always have a chaperon, daddy said better watch your hands or ill cut em off. and my momma said, they'll be fineeee, they'll be fineeeeeeee. you'll be fine, ill be fine, we'll be fine, dont worry child, You'll be fine, i'll be fine, we'll be fine, dont worry child, dont worry child, dont worryy.
