Rocky

Catch 22

Please go away
Won't you leave me alone?
I'm just so drunk and miserable
You started with me
You started with mePlease go away
Won't you leave me alone?
I'm just so drunk and miserable
You started with me
You started with meWhat's it gonna be?
What are ya gonna say to set it all off?
It doesn't take much
These days, my dear
You started with me
You started with meIt started with you
You started with me
It started with you
It started with you
It ends with me
Wait and seeHey, look
What's that sound?
Everybody look what's goin' down
It started with you
It started with youYou're so quick to forget
All the things that was said
Over and over again in my head
It started with you
It started with youIt started with you
You started with me
It started with you
It started with you
It ends with me
Wait, and seeThings could've been easier
If it was all so much slower
Don't you think?
You think too much
And you know too much
I'm gonna have to kill you nowTake all your letters
And postcards and pictures
And burn 'em and flush it

Forget it, I've forgotten
I'll see you in hellReiterating
The plainly obvious
Throw me a curve
Be spontaneousReiterating
The plainly obvious
Throw me a curve
Be spontaneousI don't wanna play this game
Go home
I don't wanna play this game
Go homeI don't wanna play this game
Go home
I don't wanna play this game
Go home
