All I Ever Do

Sweathog

Sitting at home every night thinking of you
I've been searching, oh, so long
And I've found all I need in you
Should I dare to cross that border?
Do you wanna take this further?
Will you turn me away
Or will you make this a special day?
All I do is, all I ever do, my boo
Is lay at home and dream of you, it's true
I wanna know, baby, what's on your mind
Yeah, all I ever do, my boo
Is lay at home and dream of you, it's true
I wanna know, baby, what's on your mind
See, we've been working together now for over a year
And twenty-four seven, three sixty-five
I've been trying to get my feelings clear
Do I wanna just work with you each day
Or do I want this work to change to play?
And when I decide, will you feel the same?
'Cause all I do is, all I ever do, my boo
Is lay at home and dream of you, it's true
I wanna know, baby, what's on your mind

All I ever do, my boo
Is lay at home and dream of you, it's true
I wanna know, baby, what's on your mind
And if I find love in you
Your every wish is my command
And if that love I find is true
Eternally I'll be your man
My every wish is to be with you
Every dream is to be with you
Every prayer is to be with you
To be with you, be with you
Every wish is to be with you
Every dream is to be with you
Every prayer is to be with you
To be with you, be with you
All I ever do, my boo

Is lay at home and dream of you, it's true
I wanna know, baby, what's on your mind
Yeah, all I ever do, my boo
Is lay at home and dream of you, it's true
I wanna know, yeah, what's on your mind
All I ever
