The Jacka

The YAY AREA yeah boi that where im from pushed enough coke to have the whole world numb attempt to distribute, first case i run break a king down, sniff away the things i've done smoke a zip, a two a day boi my memorys done remember niggas injuries from the squeeze of a gun and held the trees in my lungs pushin v's to the slums been through so much shit they can't believe that im young eyes tight like jet lee i believe im the one superb (???) watching allah i believe is the pun without a blood test i cant believe thats my son im just a huslah on the run, everday bendin corners hoes pullin up on us i'm letting out the smoke pullin on a strong one straight out hyphy goin muh fucka all that shit return a hardball nate is all i wish pasta and fish is a mobsters dish we was blessed with the recipe searching for the rest of me blinded by the light, going on ecstasy if it wasnt for this gangsta shit i wonder where the west will be 4 1 3 dont wanna die stand next to me
