

Lifeline

Ben Harper & The Innocent Criminals

Life is much too short to sit and wonder
Whos gonna make the next move
And will slowly pull you under
When youve always got something to prove I dont want to wait a lifetime
Yours or mine, yours or mine
Cant you see me reaching for the lifeline?
Your lifeline, your lifeline
Your lifeline, the lifeline You say that I misheard you
But I think you misspoke
I hear you laugh so loudly
While I patiently await the joke I dont wanna wait a lifetime
Not yours, not mine
Cant you see me reaching for the lifeline?
The lifeline, the lifeline
Your lifeline, your life Its a crime with only victims
Were all laid out in a row
And its hardest to listen
To what we already should know I could hold out for a lifetime
Yours or mine, yours and mine
Cant you see me reaching for your lifeline?
Your lifeline, your lifeline
The lifeline, the lifeline Your lifeline, your life
Your life
