Broken Valentine

East 17

Save me from myself
I'm calling out
I'm falling into you I feel like I'm crawling through your veins the thought I'd disappoint or let you down it cripples me inside my mind tormented by the straintake me up take me down
take me awayif this is a dream don't wake me cos I'm tired of real life
I wanna stop and press rewind
I don't wanna find I'm losing you only you can heal this heart of a broken valentineI wanna be somewhere else I'm tired of me torn apart by you you're my addiction
I need more
I'm feeling so useless like I'm in a coma being kissed by you your breath has me frozen to the choretake me up
take me down
cos I'm tired of real life
heart of a broken valentinewithout your holding it feels so cold inside I just want to sleepif this is a dream don't wake me cos I'm tired of real life
heart of a broken valentine
