All in You

Iration

If you want to learn you got to try*
You got to get it wrong to get it right
You're searching for the truth but finding lies
When all you got to do is look inside you
It's all in you
It's all in you
It's all in you
You want to be a star you got to shine
And use your own light when you need a guide
You keep getting lost following signs
When everything you need is right inside you
