

Half Way

Kolohe Kai

[verse1]:

Every day is a brand new day, ay ayyy
jamming with my home boys
we got no other choice
we jam reggae music
till the moon goes down, down
until the morning light enters into my room[bridge]:
but something is missing (missing)
my baby, I'm not kissing, no no no no no[chorus]:
she wants a hug from me (hug from me)
she can come get it in tahiti
she is the one for me (one for me) and i can go get it in hawaii but could she meet me half way (could she meet me halfway) could she meet me half-way, ay, ay could she meet me half way[verse2]:
every week is a nice blue wave (wave)
we riding waves all day long the sun never felt so strong we gonna ride, till the tide goes down (down)
until that sunlight, make its way all around[bridge] [chorus]she put the rice up on the raw fish she put the ice on his [?] dish she put the rice up on the raw fish she put the ice on his [?] dish[bridge] [chorus]
