

Moments of Weakness

Michael McCloud

Moments of weakness. Passion and Pain.
It hurts every time but we do it again and again
You donâ€™t want to lose, but your never gonna win
When moments of weakness begin

He got a wife that loves him, he got a woman on the side
Sayin someday that she might like to be the old gentlemans bride.
But she donâ€™t say it often. Because he only comes buy, in his moments of weakness now and then

Moments of weakness. Passion and Pain.
It hurts every time but we do it again and again
You donâ€™t want to lose, but your never gonna win
When moments of weakness begin

Sheâ€™s a workin woman, nine to five
Youâ€™d swear that jobâ€™s the only thing thatâ€™s keepin the woman alive
But itâ€™s a cross town call, on a Saturday night.
And the moments of weakness begin

Moments of weakness. Passion and Pain.
It hurts every time but we do it again and again
You donâ€™t want to lose, but your never gonna win
When moments of weakness begin

+ Bridge+

The weakness only happen for moments at a time
They wouldnâ€™t wear you out so much, and it wouldnâ€™t leave you cryin
But it just goes on and on you know, like a never ending dream
Wake you up late at night and make you wanna scream

Just livin my life, trying to be strong,
Kinda like the words of some old worn out Gospel song
But ainâ€™t nothin Gospel, when itâ€™s been too long
And the moments of weakness begin

Moments of weakness. Passion and Pain
It hurts every time but we do it again and again
You donâ€™t want to lose, but your never gonna win

When Moments of weakness begin

You donâ€™t want to lose, but your never gonna win
When Moments of weakness begin
