Stacked Like Pancakes

When I close my eyes, I can see When they're open, I can't breathe
I think my senses are working against me
I went with intuition but it led me to nothin' Ahh, ain't that somethin'

So all the kids in the room (pick it up pick it up)
Giving up their youth (give it up give it up)
I pick the spirit up by raising the red cup,
but there's never enough
so let me hear you say

Shit fuck dammit dammit
they'll never understand it
just pick your feet up like you'll never remember it Shit fuck dammit dammit
just pick your feet up like you'll never remember
a damn thing
When I'm at the top, I am found but my hands are still bound I think we're living on a tape getting rewound Don't want to give up but I'm hitting a brick wall and now I'm waiting for the fall

So all the kids in the room (pick it up pick it up)
Giving up their youth (give it up give it up)
I pick the spirit up by raising the red cup,
but there's never enough
so let me hear you say

Shit fuck dammit dammit
just pick your feet up like you'll never remember it Shit fuck dammit dammit
a damn thing

Shit! Fuck! Dammit! Dammit!
