

Lord Of The Last Day - Reprise

Dio

I love the night, so many shadows
Unholy light putting out the spark
Leave 'em in the dark forever, oohI can wait for you, your end is my life
All lies are true, secrets of the heart
You can take them all to heavenI don't feel pain or sorrow
The child's a man tomorrow
Crossing the line, then he's mineDon't care which God you follow
Whose promises you swallow
Time and again we must meet at the end, aahIt's all right when the music is over
Come on and dance
For the lord of the last dayI love the night, so many shadows
Unholy light, secrets of the heart
Leave 'em in the dark forever
