Not Like Anybody

Calling All Cars

You say that you are not like anybody you're not the same.
You say that you are not like anybody you're not the same.You're caught in a whirlwind and you can't calm down this place is such a mess
You all fall to the groundYou say that you are not like anybody you're not the same.
You say that you are not like anybody you're not the same.You're caught in a landslide and you can't get out.
Your head is such a mess you all fall to the groundYou say that you are not like anybody you're not the same.
You say that you are not like anybody you're not the same.Places that kill the things we hate. I've come undone bent out of shape...
You say that you are not like anybody... but you're just the same...
