

Fall and I Will Catch You

Kristian Leontiou

She gets in again at 4 am
Crawls into another sleep
Dreams of days again remembers when
All these feelings she could keep Another moment all alone
She sings into her radio
The song is fading she starts to cry
If only she knew were to go Don't you cry, please, don't cry
I'm your best friend
Don't be sad, don't look back
I'm here for you So fall and I will catch you
So fall and I will catch you Let's go out again and take a walk
I tell you what you mean to me
You're an angel at least to me
If you could see what I can see Don't you cry, please, don't cry
I'm your best friend So fall and I will catch you
So fall and I will catch you So fall and I will catch you
So fall and I will catch you So fall and I will catch you
So fall and I will catch you
