

New Beginnings

Luminate

There's a life that I've been aiming for
To please the world I see and live by taking more
But I'm lost 'cause I always come up short
I guess living for yourself will leave you wanting more So here's to new beginnings and here's to breaking free
Let's chase a new horizon, chase who we're meant to be Close your eyes and listen 'cause love's calling you and me
To see a new tomorrow, it's who we're meant to be Here I am, I can't do this anymore
Keep following the blind, there's a sound I can't ignore
And I know that I've got a chance to change
But I know the only way, I've got to run through the grave So here's to new beginnings and here's to breaking free
Let's chase a new horizon, chase who we're meant to be
Just close your eyes and listen 'cause love's calling you and me
To see a new tomorrow, it's who we're meant to be We're meant to be
(Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh)
We're meant to be
(Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh) We're meant to be
(Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh)
So we will live
(Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh) I am found and there's no where left to hide
Love's found me where I am and the change I can't deny
Love is here, I'm not letting go this time
My second birth is grace, through death I am alive So here's to new beginnings and here's to breaking free
Let's chase a new horizon, chase who we're meant to be
Just close your eyes and listen 'cause love's calling you and me
To see a new tomorrow, it's who we're meant to be So here's to new beginnings and now we're breaking free
(Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh)
Let's chase the new horizon and chase who we're meant to be (Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh) Just close your eyes and listen 'cause love's calling you and me
(Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh)
To see a new tomorrow, it's who we're meant to be
(Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh)
We're meant to be
