

Without Love

Stacie Orrico

If I speak in the tongues of Angels, but have not love
I'm only a resounding noise
If I have the gift of knowledge
And if my faith moves mountains high
But have not love I am nothing Though I know the one, who holds the stars in the Heavens
In the palm of His hand
And if I give all I possess, to the poor and the helpless
I'll still gain nothing, without love, without love Love's patient, true love is always kind
Love does not envy, never brags, it's never proud
Slow to wrath, it keeps no records of wrongs against friends
Love forgives, we all could use forgiveness Though I know the one, who holds the stars in the Heavens
In the palm of His hand
If I give all I possess, to the poor and the helpless
I'll still gain nothing, without love, without love
Without love, without love Love never fails, love is true
Love's the one thing that can always change you
Love is patient, love is kind
Love's the one reason the world survives Love never fails, love is true
Love's the one thing that can always change you
Love is patient, love is kind
Love's the one reason the world survives Though I know the one, who holds the stars in the Heavens
In the palm of His hand
If I give all I possess, to the poor and the helpless
I'll still gain nothing, without love, without love [Incomprehensible]
