

World on Fire

Wovenwar

The world has lost its mind.
They're liars leading legions of the blind.
And no one seems to see the cliff inside.
Are we, are we too foregone to save our lives?
Our house on sand is sinking, how are we surprised?
Senselessness is now a virtue to live by.
Fools we are.
Drawing from the well we dry.
Fools we are. Defending truths we know are lies.
Is there more than just performance in their show?
Heeding (?) back the hand you hold and learn to fold.
Are we, are we too foregone to change our minds?
Our house on sand is sinking, how are we surprised?
Senselessness is now a virtue to live by. Fools we are.
Drawing from the well we dry.
Fools we are.
Defending truths we know are lies.
Well I see the end.
I see it, where do we go from here to save this...running thin (?)
Just look around the world is on fire.
On fire. Just look around the world is on fire.
Fools we are.
Drawing from the well we dry.
Fools we are.
Defending truths we know are lies.
Fools we are
Drawing from the well we dry.
Fools we are.
Defending truths we know are lies.
Just look around the world is on fire.
On Fire.
