

Sunday Morning

Lily Allen

Sunday morning

We were lying in bed, just the two of us under cover, undercover

With no warning you suddenly became my lover

I've been waiting so very long for you to say it to me, say it to me

I've been skating, skating on thin ice if I don't agree I know you're the one for me but it took me by surprise If I say it back to you, I can't look you in the eye

I don't want to lose you, I don't want to confuse you

I guess this is my cue, to give you my reply And you killed it, you killed it, you killed it with I love you

And you killed it, you killed it, you killed it with I love you

And you killed with I love you

What am I supposed to say back to you

You killed it with I love you And I'm sorry

Only three little words I seem to be so scared of

So please show me how to get these words

Off the tip of my tongue and out of my mind I know you're the one for me but it took me by surprise If I say it back to you, I can't look you in the eye

I don't want to lose you, I don't want to confuse you

I guess this is my cue, to give you my reply If I say it back to you, I can't look you in the eye

I don't want to lose you, I don't want to confuse you

I guess this is my cue, to give you my reply And you killed it, you killed it, you killed it with I love you

And you killed it, you killed it, you killed it with I love you

And you killed with I love you

What am I supposed to say back to you

You killed it with I love you I have been thinking about what you said

Three little words running round in my head

There's no one else that I'd rather be next to

I guess what I'm trying to say is I love you And you killed it, you killed it, you killed it with I love you

And you killed it, you killed it, you killed it with I love you

And you killed with I love you

What am I supposed to say back to you

You killed it with I love you And you killed it, you killed it, you killed it with I love you

And you killed it, you killed it, you killed it with I love you

And you killed with I love you

What am I supposed to say back to you

You killed it with I love you
