

Murder On The Midnight Wire

Bedouin Soundclash

Murder on the Midnight Wire
Hey man you heard there's murder down on the street Lookout Police men are out on the beat Back in an alley a shot rings out a cigarette flares maybe it's a bang, blame, bang Murder on the Midnight wire
The Police said this boy is a liar
Look, the gun's in his hands It was a bang, blame, bang
The public wants an answer tonight
And this boy has no alibi
He's a murderer on the midnight wire Conversations just slip in the dark
One block over the dogs start to bark Across the ocean the sun starts to rise
With foreign eyes maybe it's a bang, blame, bang
murder on the midnight wire
the police say this boy is a liar
Look, the guns in his hands
It was a bang, blame, bang
The public wants an answer tonight
This boy has no alibi
He's a murderer on the midnight wire
