

Truth Be Known - Everybody Gets a Shot

Newsboys

he nods a little too fast talking illogic with a big bombast, he's full on dead sure any way's true, and he wouldn't wanna knock it if it works for you, he heave sighs a little too loud so frustrated with the one-way in crowd full on dead sure anything goes until you go stepping on his own toes Chorus
hold on if the truth be known truth is more than "to each his own" if the truth be own there'll be more to answer for everybody gets a shot it'll cost everything you've got if the truth be know do you really wanna know? she tries a little denial rolls here eyes like a jaded reptile true/false questions make her uptight opposites attract, so they both must be right what if there's a someone up there? shrugs it off with a "don't know don't care" hopes to God he doesn't exist but ignorance here is less than bliss Chorus if the truth be known everybody gets their shot!
