Mi Morena

Josh Groban

And so my love
From my window I can see
A beautiful vision, and when the music plays
Your body rises like a bird of graceMi morena
I saw you dancing in the rain
Holy water

Shining like a silver flameCome like a ghost
I will watch you dance alone

Mi morena

You're the light within my soulAnd so my love
The way you're moving in your dress
To a nylon guitar on wings of silk and lace
You lift upon the notes and slip awayMi morena
I saw you dancing in the rain

Holy water

Shining like a silver flameCome like a ghost I will watch you dance alone

Mi morena

You're the light within my soulTake this cross of feathers and bone
Take this heart I've carved in stone in your name
Where the setting sun surrenders to the moon
Mi querida, I wait for youMi morena
I saw you dancing in the rain

Holy water

Shining like a silver flameCome like a ghost I will watch you dance alone

Mi morena

You're the light within my soulMi morena Hold your hands out to the night

Be my lover

I will fall into your eyesSweet fire of love
Fo you I'd steal the stars
'Cause I adore you
O my morena
