

Somewhere In The Sky

Kutless

Another beautiful morning
The sun seems a little brighter today
It's my reward for stepping into the moment
As I am seizing the day[Chorus]
I'm soaring now somewhere in the sky
The rush of air never wanting to come down
There's nothing that I've ever felt like
Learning how to fly
I'm learning how to fly The freedom to be in the moment
The reason for making a memory
Never wasting all that comes my way
As I take what I see
I thank God for our freedom
There's nothing wrong with enjoying things in life
Spread the word that a smile's not beyond us
This is a call to act and seize your day
