

Without You (Acoustic Version)

One Two

I can read your foolish mind
Going dark from time to time
See the writing on the wall
We can't be saved we knew it after all, all
How is my heart suppose to beat
How is my heart suppose to beat
How is my heart suppose to beat
Without you
Summer rain was pouring down
We forgot the world around
Staying up to count the stars
If we believe
We believe the world was ours, ours
How is my heart suppose to beat
How is my heart suppose to beat
How is my heart suppose to beat
Without you
How is my heart suppose to beat
How am i going to make it through
How is my heart suppose to beat
Without you
I can read your foolish mind
How is my heart suppose to beat
How am i going to make it through
How is my heart suppose to beat
Without you
