

You Ain't Right

Avant

Yeah, it's just more drama, it's kinda funny
Things you go through in your lifetime
Sometimes you just can't explain it
Well, do women do what men do?
If you don't think so explain this to me, keep it real Tell me where you were last night?
I caught you in another lie
See you've been creepin' for so long
You see I had this feelin' That you ain't never ever been true
Shit you said you did not do
Confessions goin down tonight
See you won't get a chance to
Tell me no more lies You know you ain't right
Been livin' double lives
Creepin' on the low
You thought I wouldn't know You know you ain't right
Girl, you been livin' double lives
And you've been creepin' on the low
You thought I wouldn't know
But I know, babe See you mistake me for a fool
Thought you could walk on me like a shoe
Steady carryin' dirt through this house
I got a call that you were seen across town I never thought you'd stoop so low
This far I thought you'd never go
But like a card game you played yourself
Now play that game with someone else
Because you ain't right You know you ain't right
Been livin' double lives
Creepin' on the low
You thought I wouldn't know You know you ain't right
Girl, you been livin' double lives
And you've been creepin' on the low
You thought I wouldn't know I know about the Jeep with the chromed out rims
I know about the club and the late night meals
I know about the conversation on the phone
I know about the nights that you didn't come home Girl, you've been livin', and you've been givin'
And you've been creepin' on the low, on the low
And I gotta let you know It's alright, it's alright, it's alright, babe
It's okay, it's okay, it's okay with me, yeah
Baby bye, baby bye, bye, bye, bye, bye, babe

No more lies, no more lies, no more liesIt's alright, it's alright
(I see what you're doing, girl)
It's okay, it's okay
(But it's alright with me)Baby bye, baby bye
(Your cell phone ringin' late at night)
No more lies, no more lies
(And thinkin' that I'm asleep)You know you ain't right
Been livin' double lives
Creepin' on the low
You thought I wouldn't knowYou know you ain't right
Girl, you been livin' double lives
And you've been creepin' on the low
You thought I wouldn't knowWho's the fool here, baby?
You make me just sit here and think
Sometimes I say ooh, ooh, baby
Ooh, babe
