

City Girl

Smile

She's feeling kind of sad but she don't wanna tell no-one
'cos everybody's having fun she's taken all her savings to come out to the island and catch a little sun Fancy someone like her falling for a real surfer who only care about himself and the waves there'll be tomorrow poor silly city girl this is no commercial it's gonna hurt big time. so pack your bags get outta bed and find yourself another crazy adventure don't be fooled 'cos he chose you
it's the price you pay when you wanna walk the cute guy you wanna walk the cute guy
A puberts magazine won't help her survive holiday heartbreak it's time she hit the mini bar all the tiny bottles the tasty toblerone will help heal the bleeding scar the sun and the sand all those d'links your hand must made you forget this is not mainland
And you are a one night stand it's hard to take it's even harder o fake that your body is acking and you're full of hate but now it's too late your man is dancing with another
