

Draya

Euroz

'Cause I just wanna see you shine
They don't see your worth it's their lost
Some say that love is blind
Or is it us that tend to play Ray Charles
What some call thirst I call persistence
Lust could easily turn into love at this very instance
You got something a nigga really want
Although the grass always look greener from a distance
