

Big Ol' Fire

Diamond Rio

One of these days you'll turn around
And wanna get out of this someday town
Well people gonna laugh you know what they'll say
You're never gonna get away Well there'll be fear and there'll be doubt
But they're just things that'll slow you down
Put em all in a great big pile
And stand back And burn, baby like a big ol' fire
Build it up with your one desire
One of these days you just might change their minds
Shine the light, blind em by a big ol' fire
Oh, big ol' fire And one of these days you'll find someone
Who lights you up like the rising sun
But he's been hurt and he won't feel
Like handin' you a heart of steel Don't you run now just you stay
You're the one that can melt away
The loneliness down in his heart
Just take him in your arms And burn baby like a big ol' fire
Build it up with your one desire
One of these days you just might find the love
You're dreaming of, risin' up a big ol' fire And when you get to where you're goin'
All you'll leave behind is the ashes smolderin'
When you find the love you've always wanted
Oh, never let it die Burn, baby like a big ol' fire
Build it up with your one desire
One of these days you just might change their minds
Shine the light, blind em by a big ol' fire
Oh, big ol' fire Big ol' fire
Oh, a big ol' fire
Burn big ol' fire
