Eyemaster

Entombed

I, I, I, I, I, I, I, I live to rise again
To reborn and never end
Once I'm on the other side
I'll see if it was the end of my rideI live to transform
Present into past
Or fall into a lifeless pattern
Going nowhere fastMaster I will always be
Of all that is of me
But I can't ever touch
What is of theeI question things to see
If they are what they're said to be
I ask the why and wherefore
I reap the fruits of time but I let it take it's courseBut where no one can answer me
Where nobody'll ever know
That is where my path begins
That is where I goMaster I will always be
Of all that is of me
But I can't ever touch
What is of theeHuman flesh
Human blood
But in your words
I'm nothing but GodA master eye is the eye
Able to behold
Part of truth from lie
In what it's been told
